Professional activities

The college is glad to inform that our expertise faculties are involved in various sponsored research programmes with Rajiv Gandhi University of Health sciences and with industries. One of our research scholars got the sponsorship from Department of Science and Technology (DST) under woman's category for her work on "Synthesis and evaluation of Benzopyran derivatives for their cardioselective activity".

There are three main activities under QIP serving the faculty of degree-level institutions

Providing opportunities of the degree level faculty to improve their qualifications by offering admissions to the Master and PhD degree programmes.

Organizing short term courses for serving teachers

Curriculum Development Cell activities which help to improve class room teaching.

Our college management encourages our staff to pursue higher studies and happy to inform that most of our staff is at the verged of completion of their PhD work and very soon will be getting their doctoral degrees. Our staffs are also participating in interdepartmental activities by doing projects related to other departments.

The college organized workshop on "spectroscopic and chromatographic techniques" on August 2009. We also organized a seminar on "Current trends in Bioanalytical techniques" on February 2009.

Consultancy activities:

Academic institutes' plays great importance to closer interaction with industry and R&D organisations. At the level of industry participation in technology development, some interaction has been witnessed between large public and private sector enterprises and academic institutes. Still, industry support to basic research is virtually non-existent. Laboratory utilisation by industry for developmental purposes and for product testing has seen some success. With the help of continuing education programmes (CEP), participation from the industry is gradually on an increase. The areas in which interaction is possible include industry support to basic research for knowledge creation, industry participation in technology development involving some exploratory work, academic intervention in solving industry problems, laboratory utilization by industry and CEP. Some of our faculty members have signed MOU with prominent pharmaceutical companies and herbal research industries such as Sagar Pharmaceuticals Ltd. (Herbal division of BPRL Pvt Ltd, Bangalore) and Greenchem Industries LLC, Bangalore

Departmental activities

- The crew of teaching staff appointed for grooming of the students includes competent and dedicated professionals having in-depth knowledge and unparalleled experience in their respective subjects. The staffs involved with the delivery of education are committed to providing a rich educational experience for all students maintaining a happy and supportive environment.
- The up graduation of the students' fraternity in all respects is their primary concern.
- The college has attained fame for its excellent campus atmosphere in a span of few years
- The students seeking admission in our college come from every nook and corner of the country and thus the crowd reflects a good blend of all cultures
- A good number of students come from foreign countries as well and acquire technical and scientific skills offered during the course of study
- The students are encouraged to actively participate in all sorts of co-curricular and professional activities such as National pharmacy Week, Pharmacovigilance and Drug Safety Conference (PVDS), Indian Pharmaceutical Congress (IPC), Indian Pharmacological Society Congress, All India Pharmacy Teachers association Conference, etc.
- Lab scale research activities of high scientific standards with orientation towards meeting the health needs of masses are carried out in the institution.
- These include
Development of formulation of synthetic and herbal drugs and novel drug delivery system (NDDS).
Pharmacological screening and toxicological evaluation of drug & formulations for anti-anginal, antihypertensive, antiatherosclerotic, antihyperlipidemic, antidiabetic, wound healing, immunomodulatory, antiobesity, hepatoprotective, cardioprotective, platelet promoter etc.

Isolation of bioactive molecule from plant and microbial cells

- More than hundred research articles in the last three years from all departments have been published in various national and international peer reviewed impact factor journals.
